HORRAUF (HARROFF) FAMILIES 1753 to 1939.

Jacob Horrauf was born 1753 and died 1837. His first marriage about 1783 was to Katrina who was born 1760 and died about 1789. His children were John and Catherine Elizabeth. The Horrauf name has been spelled many ways and has been changed to Harroff by most of the families. United States Senator Vio Donahay from Ohio secured this information for me from the Veterans Administration. The record of Jacob Horrauf of Ohio whose surname appears also as Harrauf, Harroff, and Harrouf. That record follows as shown in the papers on file in claims for pension No. 2647 based upon his service in the Revolutionary War. Jacob Horrauf was born in 1753 in Bucks County, Pa. and was a German. The names of his parents are not given. Jacob Horrauf volunteered at Middletown, Lancaster County, Pa. in the spring of 1776 or 1777, and served between four and six months as a private in Captain Cowden's and Crouch's Company in the Pennsylvania Troops. He enlisted in 1777 or 1778 for twelve months, served as a private in Captains' Riegors and Brook's Company and Colonel Philip Greenwalt's Regiment, engaged in driving teams at Valley Forge. He enlisted afterwards and served three months as a Private in Captain McCullough's Pa. Company. After the Revolutionary War he resided in the neighborhood of Carlisle, Cumberland County, Pa. about ten years and moved to Boardman Township, Mahoning County, Ohio. In 1806 he was living in Canfield, Ohio (5 miles from Boardman, Ohio). Then he went to Franklin County, Pa. for about seven years, after which he moved to Austintown Township, Trumbull County, Ohio. (Mahoning County was formed from Townships of two counties in 1846. Austintown is now a part of Mahoning County). Jacob Horrauf was allowed a pension on his application executed August 24, 1832 while residing in Austintown, Ohio, which had been his place of residence for the last 16 years. In 1831 the soldier referred to his wife, Katherine, then aged about 50 years, and to children as follows: William, Lewis, Leah, and Rachel, their ages not stated. In order to obtain the date of the last payment of pension, the name of person paid, and possibly the date of death of Jacob Harrouf you should address: The Comptroller General, Accounting Office, Records Division, Washington, D.C. and cite the following data: Jacob Harrouf, Certificate No. 26147, issued March 19, 1834, Rate $23.33 per annum commenced March 4, 1831, act of June 7, 1832, Ohio (Pittsburgh) Agency.

erty so off to the widow for her support $69.18.

There is a story that has been handed down from generation to generation that Jacob Harrouf's Sr. father had fallen off or was pushed off the boat and drown while on his way to America from Germany. That may have been possible and his widow came to Bucks County Pa. where Jacob Sr. was born in 1753. It is my opinion that Jacob Sr. had at least one brother or else he had more than one son by his first marriage. I can find no records to prove either of these theories. Jacob Sr. and his wife were buried at Dutch Cemetery, one mile North of Canfield Ohio.
Kidney Ore, a form of Iron Ore, was mined on the farm of Jacob Harrouf Sr. and hauled by oxen to the main road and then by teams of horses to the Mill Creek Blast Furnace or the Brier Hill Furnace. These were the first two blast furnaces in the Mahoning Valley. Mill Creek was the first built in the year 1826 just below the falls a short way.
The Harrouf's changed their name to Harroff or at least the children did about 1810 or soon after moving to Ohio.
